Your Honor,

I am writing to voice my displeasure with the Proposed Final Judgment in the Microsoft Anti-Trust Case. The PFJ has three major flaws.

1. It does not terminate Microsoft's illegal monopoly
2. The penalty for past illegal behavior is not a disincentive and will actually give Microsoft an advantage in another market segment.
3. The Department of Justice must pledge to prevent any future anti-competitive activity by Microsoft by maintaining a close watch of the companies activities.

Illegal monopolies hurt the consumer, inhibit innovation, and encourage future illegal activity if they are not handled in a manner far more aggressive than that in the Proposed Final Judgment. I urge you to reject the PFJ.

Thank You,

Sean Ryan
